In consideration for the exclusive use of the Venue, which inherently precludes the Venue from generating revenue from other prospective guests, the Event must generate total food & beverage revenues that meet or exceed the Food & Beverage Minimum, as defined in the Event Contract Letter. For the avoidance of doubt, only the pre-tax sales of food and beverage (the "Food & Beverage Revenue") shall be considered in the fulfillment of this requirement, and room rental fees, audio/visual, labor, service gratuities, or other miscellaneous charges, are specifically excluded.

S E R V I C E C H A R G E & S A L E S T A X

All food and beverage are subject to a service charge at a rate of 25%. The service charge is not a tip or gratuity. The host is also responsible for the payment of sales tax at a rate of 7.75%.

At the time of execution and signature of this Agreement by both parties, Client shall pay to Manager a nonrefundable deposit of 50% as shown on the contract. This non-refundable deposit will be applied to the total cost of the Event. The client will pay the remaining deposit equal to 40% of the estimated cost on the updated contract two weeks before the event. Any remaining amount payable is due at the end of the event through the guest portal. In the event of an overpayment, the Manager shall issue a refund check to the Client for the difference within 20 days after the Event. Any outstanding amounts and any additional charges incurred concerning the Event will be charged to the Client's authorized credit card. If any payment is not made when due, the Manager may, at their option, deem the Event canceled, in which case, cancellation charges will apply.

The Alexandria at Torrey Pines must provide all food & beverage. No outside food and beverages are allowed unless otherwise specified by the Private Events department. Due to health regulations, perishables leftover may not be removed from the property.

G U A R A N T E E S

Your guaranteed number of guests attending is due to the Private Event department (7) days before the event. If the venue does not receive a final guarantee of guests in that time frame then the previously indicated number on your signed contract will be used. Actual charges will depend on the guaranteed number or actual attendance of the event, whichever is greater. If the number in attendance exceeds your guarantee given, the venue may prepare additional meals, if possible, and the host will be charged a higher rate for each additional guest; the same meal cannot always be promised should your attendance be greater than your guarantee. Any adjustments to the event order after 7 days needs to be approved my management and may or may not be accommodated.
